Supporting SMEs across the UK with SEO, Web Design, Social Media and Internet Marketing

Ernst himself once famously said, "Creativity is intelligence having fun", and here at Chehine Co., we like to take advice from the best. When you join us, your brand becomes the focus of our digitally savvy, cutting-edge creative team.

We know that having fun and being real online is the best way to help you really connect with your clients, so we bring the fun, along with a big old dollop of tried and tested, innovative marketing knowledge to make sure your business gets off the ground.

We collaborate online to bring you the latest techniques in design, development and digital marketing, we call Northwich, Cheshire, our home. However, we all work remotely, not only does this keep our costs affordable for you, but it also means we can support small businesses across the country (from Buxton, Derbyshire, all the way to Gillingham, Kent).

What our digital marketing agency does

Our remote team of experts can support you in all areas of your small businesses' digital marketing – from local SEO to Facebook Ad campaigns and much more.

Social Media

We'll manage your social media accounts to grow your audience and to keep your customers engaged.

SEO

Our SEO Packages are designed to increase the amount of organic traffic you are getting.

Creative Content

Content is king. From Blogs to Infographics, our content packages will get your brand noticed

Paid Ads (PPC)

Our paid advertising baffins know how to get your ads the attention they deserve and working hard for you.

Websites

We're experts at producing perfect websites that advertise your services online and help you make conversions to sales.

Training

Our one-to-one and group marketing training sessions are tailored to your small businesses needs.

What our clients say about our remote-based marketing agency

Our best possible credentials are the work we do and the kind words of the companies we work with, so please view our case studies and reviews on Google My Business.

We utilise the very best of platforms

No hidden costs, required extras or unexplained fees. You tell us what you want and we give you a price.

We believe that there's no merit in a 'one-size-fits-all' and will build packages around your needs.

Unlike other digital marketing agencies we cut out the jargon (hallelujah) and speak in plain English.

We've been involved in the marketing of businesses in a variety of sectors and understand the challenges you face.

Know us

We at Small Biz Essentials offer small to medium sized businesses everything from affordable web design to search engine optimization.
